

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

BY McLANAHAN, TROUSDALE & DILL

Daily Appeal.

LETTER FROM JOHN C. W. DAVIDSON
BEE, OF WISCONSIN.

WASHINGTON, Circa, Feb. 12, 1860.

To the Editors of the Third Congressional Review.

Having read in the Chronicle of this date a letter from one of the representatives from Louisiana, the Hon. Thomas J. Oakland, in which he says his constituents do not like the position of Judge Douglas relative to the Constitution, I have the following to add:

One of my colleagues, the Hon. Miles Taylor, of Illinois, has written me a letter, in which he expresses the opinion that Judge Douglas, of Illinois, ought to be removed.

I have no doubt that Mr. Taylor is entirely right in his judgment on that question.

That being the case, I find the following association, which from an acquaintance with both of them, I am quite satisfied.

The politicians and newspapers in the interest of Judge Douglas, or some of them, the North, boast of his strength at the present time, and the importance of his services to the cause of the Union.

Now, Sir, I am not so foolish as to think that the whole country is in the interest of Judge Douglas, or even of those of the Northern politicians.

Now, Sir, I am not so foolish as to think that the whole country is in the interest of Judge Douglas, or even of those

of the Northern politicians.

Now, Sir, I am not so foolish as to think that the whole country is in the interest of Judge Douglas, or even of those

of the Northern politicians.

Now, Sir, I am not so foolish as to think that the whole country is in the interest of Judge Douglas, or even of those

of the Northern politicians.

Now, Sir, I am not so foolish as to think that the whole country is in the
